Rev. Kate Byrom, the new vicar for St. Peter's Church visited school yesterday. She had a walk around the school and was informed about the school's strengths and areas for development. We are delighted to welcome her and her family to the Ravenshead community and will work with her to further strengthen the Christian ethos of the school. Kate comes to Ravenshead with an impressive record of working with young people and very much enjoyed her role of giving clergy support to the head teacher at Skegby St. Andrew's Church of England School. Kate's licensing takes place at St. Peter's this Sunday at 6pm.

Singup at Joseph Whitaker

On Tuesday, 20 children from the choir sang at Joseph Whitaker School. They sang 'Together' on their own and then 'Roar', 'Believe' and 'Happy' with the other 5 Family Primary School's and Joseph Whitaker's choirs. It was a lovely event which the children enjoyed. I would like to thank the parents we came along to support the children and Mrs Wormsley for spending time rehearsing with them.
