World Book Day 2.3.17

Thank you for sending the children to school in some amazing outfits yesterday! It was very difficult to pick the winning outfits however the winners, who received a £10 voucher donated by Mrs Howard (parent) on behalf of WH Smith were:-
Abbey S F2JB, Jonah M 1HB, Summer B-H 2AW, Keaton P 3BB, Maisie S 4LW, Evie B 5CL, Harry P 6 SM. An extra one was given to Macey P 5CL, who was off ill but whose costume, which was a dictionary made at home was fantastic.

The children were all sent home with a book yesterday and it was good to see many parents at the PTA book fuddle. Thank you also to the parents/relatives that joined us for our family read - it was a great turnout.

I would like to thank Mrs Howard (Mia's mum) for sorting and bringing the books to school and for the vouchers.

Chess News

On Thursday, 23rd February the long planned Jamboree Chess Match took place at Annesley School involving the following schools:- Annesley, Arnold Mill, and Ravenshead.

This competition involved teams of eight children, split into groups of four and playing three rounds of 20 minutes each - a total of 36 games played.

I am very pleased to say that Ravenshead won overall with 15 wins, both Annesley and Arnold Mill having 10.5 wins. This was a super performance by all the children involved.

Whilst the main event was happening a smaller set of games were being played by Reserve players and Ravenshead also won this event with 10.5 wins to 1.5 wins.

The Chess Challenge Competition has now completed 5 rounds with the leader on 15 points and the closest challengers on 13 points. There are 2 more rounds to go.

Mr D.Padvis Chess Coach and Mr R.Walls Teacher.

Shop for Schools 18.3.17-18.4.17

Once again we have successfully joined the Mansfield Four Seasons Shop for Schools scheme. To gain points for schools shoppers must collect receipts from stores at the Four Seasons Shopping Centre and exchange them for point's vouchers to be posted in the dedicated letter box located at the Customer Service Desk. Schools with the most points win prizes. Please support us!
